CITY BUILDINGS DECORATE

Preparations for the unveiling of the Confederate monument Saturday afternoon have been arranged and all that remains to make it a complete success is a good brand of weather. For the occasion the city will present a gala occasion, and already the merchants have begun to decorate with the Confederate colors. The city buildings will be decorated while a large number of Confederate veterans are expected to be in Paducah to celebrate the event.

The program will begin promptly at 3 o'clock, and it will be:

Address of Welcome—Dr. D. G. Marrell, chairman of the Veterans' Monument committee.

Response—Captain W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa.

Music during the unveiling, which will be done by Misses Rebecca Smith, Mary Terry Burnett, Mollie Gardner, Miriam Lewis, and presentation of laurel wreath by Miss Myra Gilbert.

Presentation of monument to the city—Captain Harrison Watts.

Acceptance of monument on behalf of the city—Mayor James P. Smith.

Music.

Dixie.

Arrangements have been made for the prompt formation of the parade. The participants will form at the following places: Seventh and Jefferson streets—Deal's band, mounted police and Sons of Veterans and others on horseback.

Sixth and Jefferson streets—City officials in carriages, Confederate veterans will form on north Sixth street and will be assigned to automobiles.

Fifth and Jefferson streets—Daughters of the Confederacy in carriages, and citizens in carriages.

The parade will march as follows: Chief Collins and police in front, followed by Deal's band, Sons of Veterans, city officials in carriages, drum corps under leadership of Major Hager, invited guests and speakers, Confederate veterans in automobiles, United Daughters of the Confederacy in carriages, and citizens following.

The parade will proceed from Sixth and Jefferson streets to Second and Jefferson streets; south to Broadway; west to Ninth street and Broadway; north to Jefferson street; west to Fountain avenue; north to Lang park, where the unveiling will be held.

City Will Decorate.

Mayor Smith authorized the city buildings to be decorated in honor of the occasion.

Iron Trade Threatened

Washington, May 13.—Disaster will threaten the great iron industry in this country if the Aldrich tariff of 25 cents a ton falls of adoption, according to Burrows, of Michigan, in the senate today. He said iron ore mines here couldn't overcome the cheap ore or high grades from inexhaustible deposits in Cuba.

WEATHER.

CLOUDY

Partly cloudy tonight and probably local showers tonight and Friday, warmer in east portion. Highest temperature yesterday, 77; lowest today, 58.

STOESSEL STRICKEN.

St. Petersburg, May 13.—A report from the fortress of Peter and Paul, where General Stoessel is undergoing a life sentence for the surrender of Port Arthur says he is stricken with apoplexy and can live but a few days. The attack came when Stoessel heard the result of his wife's vain appeal to the czar for his release.

Cashier Missing

Owensboro, Ky., May 13. (Special.)—J. P. Blandford, cashier of the West Louisville branch of the Owensboro Banking company, has been missing since Saturday. His accounts are being examined.

Hanged for Nothing

Summit, Miss., May 13.—Without having committed any crime, as far as known, John Rist, a negro, was lynched here and found this morning hung to a tree in the center of town. At a mass meeting today citizens denounced the hanging as murder, and offered a reward for the capture of the murderers.

Florida Pass Scandal

Tallahassee, Fla., May 13.—Charges that many persons of prominence in Florida accepted railroad passes contrary to the law have been submitted to the house by a committee appointed to investigate passes for the state railroad commission. It is alleged many state as well as federal officers received passes.

His Mind a Blank

McNell, Ark., May 13.—A man whose mind is a blank, except that he says he occupies a chair of mathematics in a Texas college, and has a wife and seven children, is today at a local hotel. He wears a ring with the initials "H. A. W." He does not know his name except that his first is Henry.

Wilder Promoted

London, May 13.—Private advices today from Hongkong say A. P. Wilder, the American consul general, is to be the next governor general of the Philippines to succeed Governor Smith. Wilder is now en route to America on leave of absence.

Washington, May 13.—The report from Hongkong that Wilder will succeed Governor Smith in the Philippines is denied here. Wilder was nominated for consul at Shanghai.

Only One Store Left.

Hannibal, Mo., May 13.—The entire business section of Kinderhook, Ill., except one store room, was destroyed by fire that originated in Colgrove's meat market. Loss $60,000.

George Hodge.

Mr. George Hodge, of Hard Money, Graves county, died yesterday afternoon at Riverside hospital. Mr. Hodge was 59 years old. He came to this city Tuesday morning and yesterday morning he went out to the hospital and was operated on for cancer of the throat. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the burial at the Mt. Pleasant cemetery. Mr. Hodge is survived by a large number of relatives in Graves county.

Kermit Gets Giraffe

Nairobi, May 12.—Not to be outdone by his distinguished father, Kermit Roosevelt killed a bull giraffe, according to messages from Camp Machakos today. The Roosevelt set out today to visit the American mission, a day's march from railroad. The visit to the American mission is the first of a series of Roosevelt will make to various missionary fields in the protectorate. He announced upon his arrival he was greatly interested in the work of the foreign missionaries and would gladly visit as many as possible.

Dayton En Fete

Dayton, May 13.—Today was gala day in Dayton. Everybody was out to welcome the home coming Wright brothers, who arrived at noon. Cannon boomed a welcome as the train approached. School children lined the route of march and scattered flowers and green in the paths of the air conquerors. Buildings are decorated.

The Wrights will go to Washington about July 1 to arrange contracts with the United States for the American rights to their inventions. They also will take up plans for the enlargement of their Dayton plant, which now has a capacity of about 60 machines.

BAPTISTS REFUSE CARNEGIE OFFER FOUNDATION FUND

Will Not Eliminate Sectarian Features From Their Schools.

Laymen, B. Y. P. W. and Seminary Board Meet.

CONVENTION OPENS TONIGHT

Louisville, May 13. (Special.)—At today's session of the Baptist laymen, the Auxiliary Southern Baptist convention, reports from different states were received, showing great progress made in all lines of church work.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.—Almost unanimous sentiment to reject the offer of the Carnegie foundation fund, providing money to sectarian schools that will drop their sectarianism, was the spirit at a banquet last night of the Southern Baptist Educational society in connection with the Southern Baptist convention, which opens here tonight. The most prominent educators of the south were present at the banquet which was held at the Galt House, and a response to an address of welcome by A. P. Montague, of Birmingham, was one of the most brilliant orations ever heard in the historic old salon.

The plea for unification of the Baptist college entrance requirements was prominent in the speeches before the society, which will elect officers tomorrow.

Two Auxiliary Meetings.

The first sessions of two auxiliary meetings related to the Southern Baptist convention began yesterday afternoon. They were the conference for the Southern Baptist Laymen's missionary movement, at the Broadway Baptist church, and the convention of the Baptist Young People's Union, at the armory.

Ex-Gov. W. J. Norbren, of Atlanta, Ga., was selected as the presiding officer at the laymen's conference, and J. T. Henderson, the general secretary of the laymen's movement, was chosen to conduct the devotional exercises.

The auditorium of the Broadway Baptist church was filled when the services began. One of the prominent visitors was J. Campbell White, of New York, secretary of the International Missionary Movement. Dr. J. B. Gambrill, of Dallas, Texas, made an interesting talk on "The Bible's View of the Layman." He said that nowhere in the scriptures is the idea suggested that the layman's obligation to labor for Christianity is any less than that of the minister.

The annual address of Dr. W. W. Hamilton, of Atlanta, president of the Baptist Young People's Union of the south, was the feature of the opening session of the young people's convention. His address was in part as follows:

"Greater Things," is the slogan of the B. Y. P. U. of the south. The convention of 1908, at Hot Springs, marked the entrance upon new and larger usefulness, and since then our work has been in a constant state of revival. That meeting was to us as the awakening of young manhood to its own individuality and its undeveloped power.

"It would be out of place here and now for me to anticipate unduly the unusually interesting and meaningful reports which we are to have from our executive and our education committees. I may, however, say that they have done us great service and they bring to us a call to the greatest work we have yet known. They have planned for us a campaign for organization based upon a new emphasis of the 'worthwhileness' of the B. Y. P. U. or upon the need of training for service. They bring to us, too, the strange and remarkable statement that the question of finance is no longer embarrassing and they give to us an assurance of permanence and efficiency which give us reason to breathe deeply and freely.

"There are new things which I desire to call to your attention at this time, and which you will see and feel more and more as these brethren speak and as the reports are made.

Wonderful Growth.

"The B. Y. P. U. of the south has passed its second summer, and is growing and developing most wonderfully. In fact, we seem to be just getting acquainted with this our young friend. He is closer of kin than we have seemed to realize, and is surprising to us with his strength.

"Few of us have realized that we

ALL ARE DEAD.

Albany, May 13.—Fixing of the liability for the premature explosion at Callahan quarry, yesterday, when 21 Italians and eight Americans were killed, commenced today, but the authorities are skeptical about finding the cause, since every man in the vicinity of the explosion was killed.

Bishop Galloway's Funeral

Jackson, Miss., May 13.—The funeral of Bishop Galloway is 4 o'clock this afternoon.

D. A. R. Fountain

The base of the D. A. R. fountain, at Fifth street and Broadway, was placed in position this morning. It is thought that the figure of the Indian may be placed in position by night and then the fountain will be ready to be connected with the water mains. The foundation was laid last week, and had to be hardened before placing the heavy weight upon it.

Plot to Kill Diaz

Phoenix, Ariz., May 13.—A plot to assassinate President Diaz, of Mexico, and execute all the principal officials of the republic is said to have been disclosed by the federal grand jury, now in session at Tombstone, investigating cases of the Mexican revolutionists, Rivera, Villaral and Magoon. Letters were read to the grand jury said to show the plot.

Heath Telephone Co.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the county clerk's office by the Heath Telephone company. The object of the company is to install a telephone system, and stock has been taken by many citizens residing near Heath. The incorporators are: T. M. McGee, D. W. Murphy, A. P. Hill, J. D. Rives, F. M. Kelley, F. V. Kimbrough and A. W. Rickman. The principal office of the company will be at Heath.

White Plague Not Checked

Washington, May 13.—That the recent vigorous campaign against tuberculosis failed to check the white plague is the statement made in a letter from Nathan Straus, read at the opening session of the fifth annual meeting of the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis here today. Straus backs up his assertion by official statistics from the New York health department showing an increase of 33 per cent in tuberculosis in two years.

Kentucky Lease

The contract for the leasing of the Kentucky theater virtually has been agreed upon between Messrs. Matt Carney and George Goodman and Mr. Dan Fishell, who is a representative of the Schubert interests. It was intended for Mr. Fishell to come to Paducah the first of June, when the contract was to have been signed, but owing to the fact that Mr. Fishell is in New York on business, he will be unable to reach Paducah before June 15, when it is expected to close the contract.

Strike May Fail

Paris, May 13.—The expected increase in the number of striking postmen and telegraphers did not materialize today. It is now believed the movement will fail utterly. Telegraphic communication with England is badly affected, outside that the situation is slightly improved.

The worst from outside the city today is from Lille, where strikers cut the telegraph wires and injured a number of fine instruments in the telegraph office. Late this afternoon 200 postmen were forced to quit.

Donaldsonville, La., May 13.—Almost the entire crew of the battleship Mississippi is moored at the docks here, fought flames last night which swept part of the wharves. The ship's engines were used to throw five streams of water on the blaze. It will leave Friday for Palmyra. It is announced today the vessel only will run in the day time while in the river.

Money From Sale of State Lands Diminishes to Less Than Half.

Given to County Board For High School.

VARIED HISTORY OF MONEY

The accrediting of the county court house fund to the new county high school fund is not unlike the return of the prodigal son, and it is given as great a welcome by the county school board, as was the reception of the wayward son. The fund was established many years ago, and so few records of the fund have been made that the story of its trials and sorrows is more like tradition than a fact in the county government. Even the county officials know but little of its history, and that has been gained from information from old citizens rather than from a perusal of the county records.

About the year 1833 the state legislature gave to the few counties west of the Tennessee river many acres of land to be used for school purposes. For years the land was rented and the money used to support the school. About 1871 the state legislature passed a second act, which permitted the county to dispose of the land and use the interest for the building of a seminary. At the sale of the land about $8,000 was realized and since then it has been a football, which the county officials tossed from one man to another. Part of the time the fund has remained idle, while at other periods it was loaned to individuals, and through these shifting parts it was dropped each time, and the sum dwindled from the original figures until now it is about $2,500.

About five years ago the county collected the money and placed it in bank, where it has remained at interest. At the time the money was changed from the seminary fund to the county court house fund by the fiscal court. It was intended for it to be used as a nucleus for the erection of a new court house, but no new court house is floating in the air.

Will Help School.

The new school law provides for a county high school, which will be erected at Heath, and the county becomes liable for any debts that are existing on the districts. The 20 cent levy which was made for school purposes will just about clear off the old notes due on a few districts and meet the expenses of running the county schools.

The board would be obliged to go into debt to erect the High school, but the transfer of the fund of $2,500 to the school with the subscription raised by Heath will bridge over the deficit and place the county schools on a clear plane. Judge Lightfoot promised the school board that he would favor turning the money over to the schools, and it is believed that the fiscal court will concur in the action, thus placing the money where it was intended to be used by the legislature many years ago.

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE CAPTURED BY CRUISER ALBANY

San Francisco, May 13.—Unconfirmed reports are here today that the crew of the United States cruiser, Albany, had an engagement with a party of Omigrañoses, being led against the republic of Salvador by John Moisant, an American, formerly owner of several sugar plantations. It is reported Moisant will be arrested and returned to the United States.

Increase Fluor Spar

Washington, May 13. (Special.)—Senator Bradley introduced an amendment to the tariff bill, fixing the duty on ground fluor spar at $3 per ton and crushed at $3.50, in place of $1.50 as provided by the Aldrich bill.

LIVE CONTESTANTS START GAME BY SENDING IN BIG FREE NOMINATION BALLOT

List of Prizes Grows More Than a Thousand Dollars Over Night—District Prizes Increased.

ASSISTANT MANAGERS OF THE CONTEST LOCATED IN EACH OF THE DISTRICTS TO AID CANDIDATES.

Some People Object to the Smell of Automobiles and Microbes on the Sun's Cash Prizes—Others Don't.

Yesterday it was announced that it is almost vulgar to own one. As to the cash prizes, money is said to be unsanitary. Little germs are said to be lurking in every fold of a bank note and microbes cling with characteristic tenacity to the smooth surface of a twenty dollar gold piece. Some philosopher has observed, however, that the unhealthiest thing about money is the lack of it. The persons who win the second and third prizes in this contest will not be bothered with an immediate shortage in running expenses.

Nominations Start.
Even as early in the game as this morning the mail sent to the manager of the contest was as heavy as that ordinarily received during the middle of a contest. But then, this is no ordinary contest, it is an ERA-MAKER in the history of newspaper circulation campaigns.

Scores of persons sent in nomination coupons placing their popular friends (or themselves) in the race. These were probably received from people who have watched the course of former contests and realize the benefits to be derived from getting into the game at the start.

The nomination coupons are worth a thousand votes, but only ten of them can be counted for any one candidate. It will be only a few days until the publication of these generous sized ballots will be stopped and persons who enter the race after that will have to get a fine big subscription to overcome that handicap that has been placed upon them by the people who got wise at the start and clipped their full quota of nomination ballots.

GET IT NOW, IT PAYS.
About the Prizes.
The Grand Prizes have not been changed since yesterday. The additions have been made in the list of District Prizes, which will go in every county irrespective of the number of votes received by candidates in other districts.

The prizes, which are for all districts, taken as a whole are: First, a thousand dollar, fully equipped, four passenger touring car, one of the very best automobiles that can be secured; second, five hundred dollars in cash, real, genuine money; third, three hundred and fifty dollars of the same sort of cash. These prizes go to the three candidates, irrespective of district, who stand highest at the close of the contest, August 4.

Of course there will be some who object to the receipt of prizes of this sort. Automobiles smell of gasoline and one is liable to get one's hands soiled in running them. Besides they are getting so common in prosperous communities like West Kentucky that

Health and Beauty Hints

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Nellie G.: For a soft, painful corn try binding it nightly in common baking soda, moistened with a little water. This will take out the soreness.

Arthur G.: (1) Sometimes a drug-gist endeavors to discourage the making of home remedies because he thinks it interferes with his business. I never suggest the use of anything that is not sold in most first-class stores. (2) To make karene blood tonic and liver remedy take 1 ounce of karene, mix it with 1/2 cup of sugar and add 1/2 pint of alcohol and 1 1/2 pints of hot water. Be sure to get the karene in an original 1-ounce package. This formula makes a full quart of tonic, of which you should take 1 tablespoonful 5 minutes before each meal and before retiring. As an all-round tonic this has no superior. It will restore your lost appetite and tend to strengthen and build you up. It purifies the blood and your pimples and ugly blotches will soon disappear. I have known it to be very beneficial for cases of scrofula and other eruptions of the skin.

Sarah M.: I do not know of any formula for a bust developer that is worthy of recommendation.

Lucille: A good "liquid powder" or face wash is made by dissolving 4 ounces of spumax in 1/2 pint of hot water and adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This home-made complexion beautifier whitens the skin without the use of powder and is particularly recommended for the use of anyone who has a sallow, dark or oily skin.

Archie G.: To remove dandruff and stop falling hair, apply once a week a quinine hair tonic made by dissolving 1 ounce of quinine in 1/2 pint of alcohol, adding 1/2 pint cold water. Rub into the scalp and hair with the finger tips until absorbed. This treatment will promote the growth of hair and tend to make it luxuriant and glossy. See answer to Mary A. B.

Mary A. B.: It is not necessary to shampoo the hair oftener than twice a month if you use a shampoo that will thoroughly cleanse the hair and scalp. An inexpensive shampoo is made by dissolving a teaspoonful of carboxin in a teacupful of hot water. Pour on the hair and rub well. You will find that this makes a good lather—and plenty of it—thoroughly cleanses the hair and scalp, relieves irritation, makes the hair soft and fluffy and has a tendency to cure scalp diseases.

George L.: A home-made eye tonic that will prevent your eyes from becoming dull, red or inflamed is easily procurable. Just get from your druggist one ounce of crystals and dissolve it in a pint of water. This makes a good eye tonic that will not smart when applied. One or two drops in each eye is the only treatment required. The effect is almost instantaneous and it gives relief when the eyes are tired, inflamed or sore. This tonic keeps the eyes bright and clear, strengthens the sight and will benefit you if you wear glasses.

Mrs. J. K.: (1) Rubbing vaseline in the eyebrows and eyelashes will make them grow out heavier and darker. Never use vaseline elsewhere on the face, for it tends to promote the growth of hair. (2) You can make a good face cream jelly by dissolving 1 ounce of almond in 1/2 pint of cold water and adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Let stand. For massaging apply and let remain for a minute on the face; then rub well with the finger tips. It cleanses the pores thoroughly and the dirt easily comes out and off your face.

College Girl: It will be good news to you to learn that what you eat is now thought to have little to do with obesity and that if enough exercise is taken, even a fleshy woman may eat what she wants. To half starve oneself means to look haggard and altogether unlovely. Don't drink while eating, even water, and don't drink alcoholic stuff at any time. The best flesh reducer I know of is parnos. Get from your druggist an original 4-ounce package of parnos, take it home and dissolve it in a pint of hot water. Take 1 tablespoonful 3 times a day, before meals.

F. E. L.: Consult your family physician.

"Annie Laurie": Don't worry. Statistics show that one person out of four suffer from eczema or salt rheum at some time or another during life. Try this: Get from your druggist 4 ounces of luxor; mix it with 1/2 pint of water and 4 tablespoonfuls of alcohol. Shake the bottle and pour a small quantity upon the affected surface and allow it to dry, repeating the treatment several times each day until the irritation disappears. A very dear friend of mine cured a most obstinate case of eczema with this remedy.

Flour Exports Fall Off

Washington, May 13.—"Wheat manipulation at Chicago has rendered business in American flour impossible for months," said Special Agent Davis, who has been in Europe for several months investigating market conditions there. In his report to the bureau of manufacturers, made public today, "I confidently believe," he continued, "that if wheat speculators had left the market alone we would have exported at least two million more barrels of flour of the current crop than we did ship."

The lazy man would rather take half a loaf than work for a whole one.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire Insurance policy is such a promise. Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

TRAVIS AND TAFT WIN GOLF GAME

Opposing Team Changed at Seventh Hole.

President Greeted With Long Applause by Hundreds When He Landed.

TAFT'S DRIVE WAS FEATURE.

Washington, May 13.—With victory perched on his golf stick, President Taft returned from Chevy Chase club links. Taking Walter J. Travis, former national and international champion for his partner, the president helped defeat by a score of one up, the opposing team, composed during the first seven holes of play of General Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the insular bureau of the war department, and E. Oden Horstmann, the crack player of the Chevy Chase club, whose place was taken after the seventh hole by Captain Archibald Butt, military aide at the white house.

The feature of the game was the remarkable drive made by the president, who, on the eighteenth hole, led with a long, straight drive to within three feet of the home green hole. Hundreds of members of the club who were gathered around the home green, broke into long applause at the president's extraordinary play. Unfortunately he fooled his put and made the hole in three. At the seventeenth hole, the president and Travis were two up; but Edwards and Butt won the eighteenth, making the score 1 up in favor of the president and Travis.

The total individual score of Travis was 74 and Taft 92.

ANOTHER WELL ATTENDED MEETING AT GOEBEL AVE.

There was another large congregation at the Goebel Avenue Christian church last evening to hear Evangelist G. Dallas Smith. The meetings are proving interesting and profitable. Evangelist Smith spoke on "The Power of the Word," which he handled well, making it clear and impressive. He is a good talker. Tonight he will preach on "How to Study the Word Intelligently That We May Be Benefited Thereby." Services each evening at 7:45 promptly. A cordial invitation is extended to the public.

The Red Cross baseball team in capturing Wednesday's game won the series from the Paducah High school. Three games were played, the Red Cross boys winning two. You Should Know What You Are Getting When You Buy a

REFRIGERATOR

We do not ask you to buy a Refrigerator on our recommendation, as most other dealers do. We only ask that you let us place a HERRICK REFRIGERATOR in your home, and let you decide for yourself whether it is as we represent, BEFORE YOU PAY; in this way you take no risk whatever. Isn't this fair enough to try?

Now is it not plain to you, that if we did not know, positively, that the HERRICK REFRIGERATOR would do just what we represent it to do, we could not afford to make you this proposition?

Put a plate of salt in your refrigerator; (salt absorbs moisture you know) if the salt is wet tomorrow the refrigerator is dangerous. In the ordinary zinc lined refrigerator the air does not circulate properly; dampness accumulates and food becomes tainted and infected with putrid germs. Your safety lies in the purchase of a REFRIGERATOR that is guaranteed—

What Hunters Teach Animals.
If proof were needed of the part played by sportsmen in this education of the wild we have it in their curious limitations when confronted by dangers of another kind.

No number of fatalities keeps these game birds away from the telegraph wires; no lengthening death roll warns the woodcocks and other fly by nights to avoid the fatal lantern of the lighthouse. Not all the centuries of havoc have taught the larks to build their nests out of reach of scythe and sickle. Only the noisier menace of dogs and guns has brought acquired experience. In this the true sportsman has his consolation, for if difficulty be the essence of sport then that difficulty is likely to increase.—Pall Mall Gazette.

FOR FEDERAL APPROPRIATION

Illinois Will Wait to Build Waterway.

Provides Commission to consist of Seven Members—Measure Substitute for Administration Bill.

LOCAL OPTION IS DEFEATED

Springfield, Ill., May 13.—Federal co-operation not alone in the plans for a deep waterway, but in actual appropriations of money to be spent in creating a channel for ships from Lake Michigan to the Gulf of Mexico is the integral part of the deep waterway bill introduced in the house by the committee.

The bill, which is a substitute for house bill No. 330, was drafted by Representative Smejkal, chairman of the committee, after long conferences with Engineer Cooley, Congressman Lorimer, members of the committee and others interested in the creation of a deep waterway.

The measure provides for the appointment of a waterway commission of Illinois to consist of seven members, not more than four of whom shall belong to the same political party, the governor to have the appointing power by and with the advice of the senate.

No actual work shall begin on the deep waterway until the actual expenditure of federal funds has been authorized, and the amount of federal appropriation shall be sufficient with the $20,000,000 voted by Illinois to complete the deep waterway, and all appurtenant works proposed by the state of Illinois in conjunction therewith, as authorized by this act.

The bill vests in the United States government the entire control of the waterway when it is open for navigation and provides, "that the state shall develop water power, dockage and other collateral utilities in connection with a deep waterway and forever own and control the same. The depth of the channel is to be not less than 24 feet; five locks to be not less than 108 feet wide and 900 feet in length. The commission is authorized to cede the federal government such property as pertains to the duties of the national government in the interests of navigation."

The work of excavation may be carried on by direct employment of labor if the commission so elects.

The $20,000,000 bonds are to be issued in denominations of $500 each.

Other provisions provide for condemning property for the right of way; the leasing of electric current that may be generated by power; the payment of expenses of the commission which shall not exceed a total of $200,000. The bill was read the first time and advanced to second reading without reference.

Local Option Loses.

The cause of local option sustained a decided defeat in the house. The license committee's bill, No. 655, came up on the order of second reading. The bill provides that cities and villages and incorporated towns within a township can vote themselves wet or dry without regard to what the township as a whole votes. Adkins, of Platt county, moved to strike out the enacting clause, saying the bill nullified the present local option law.

Brown, of LaSalle, spoke in favor of the bill and English, of Johnson county, against the bill. Brown claimed the cities and villages had to bear the brunt of taxation. This English denied. The motion to strike out the enacting clause was lost, receiving 65 votes to 81 against it, and the bill was advanced to third reading.

Waterways.

The Illinois international improvement commission's waterway bill, the administration bill, came up in the senate and provoked a hot discussion.

Senator McKenzie's amendment that the commissioners should number seven instead of five, and that one should be appointed from each supreme judicial district, was defeated, and McKenzie's amendment that four of the commissioners should have the power to contract with private individuals for water power was also defeated.

The deep waterway bill drafted by Congressman Lorimer and introduced several weeks ago by Representative Parker, of Joliet, was reported out to the house by the drainage and waterway committee with recommendation that it do pass. It was read the first time and advanced to second reading. The Lorimer bill differs in some respects from the state administration bill now up in the senate.

$1,000 License Bill is Killed.

Senator Landee's bill, which provided for a $1,000 saloon license instead of the $500 license now on the statute books of which amount $800 was to go into the treasury of the municipality granting the license and $200 into the county treasury, was killed in the senate, the enacting clause being stricken out.

School Book Bill.

One of the most important bills yet passed by either house was passed by the senate. It is Littleton's bill, which fixes a maximum price for each school book to be used in the public schools of the state and prohibits a coalition of the publishing companies. The house committee reported out favorably to that body Representative Tippit's bill which prohibits pool selling at races, and betting on horse races.

"Fine weather," remarked the passenger. "So I've learned to my sorrow," replied the chauffeur, as he gave the steering wheel a quick turn to avoid running over a policeman. "I've paid three in the last week."—Judge.

Tired Women

Need a Tonic

When the daily, endless cares of your household duties begin to seem drudgery to you, don't become cross and irritable. When you're tired and worn out, when the pleasure is gone from caring for your family, it's not your mind that rebels but your overwrought physical organization. You need a tonic, a woman's tonic to rebuild your strength and restore your health. Try Cardui, the popular, successful, woman's medicine which, during more than half a century, has been found to relieve quickly the weakness and ailments from which only women suffer.

Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients, without any harmful qualities. It can do you no harm and there is every reason to believe it will be of much benefit to you.

Mrs. J. L. Sanders, Tennessee City, Tenn., tried Cardui and, regarding her experience, she writes: "I have used Cardui for several years and have always found it to be a good medicine. Last fall I was all run down, hardly able to drag around. I took three bottles of Cardui and began to improve as soon as I began taking it. I recommend Cardui to other suffering women."

Cardui is for sale at all reliable drug stores. Try it. "Will do you good."

Daily Thought.
"Troubles that might break us may be made to make us."

Yes, we're sitting on the fence with the candidate for state senator in the Second senatorial district, and we'll say for him, he's sitting tight.

The News-Democrat says it is very particular about its associates. The failure of its candidate for state senator to announce himself in harmony with the News-Democrat's views, indicates that he has some slight hesitancy about accepting the News-Democrat's choice of company.

Those, who deplore the fact that the Waverly, Tenn., night riders got only ten day sentences in jail, forget to be thankful that they were found guilty and punished at all. It is true, the punishment does not fit the crime; but the trial was speedy and if the sentence is promptly and vigorously executed, it will discourage night riding for a generation. Ten days in jail is no snap, and the stigma will attach to the guilty just as much as if they were incarcerated for a year.

It is authoritatively stated that Wright brothers earned $500,000 by sales of European rights to their aeroplanes, and won $250,000 in prizes while abroad. The days of starving genius are past. Our highly organized society makes contemporaneous recognition possible and profitable to the alert inventor. The world is eagerly searching for the new. Instead of neglecting genius today, we are prone to exalt cleverness for an hour, beyond its desert. True appreciation of values, of course, is as impossible today as ever; but the genius who makes a fortune and wins the adulation of his contemporaries, can afford to wait contentedly for posthumous appreciation of the right significance of his work.

ESTHETIC PROGRESS.

Three great objects can be accomplished by the boulevarding of South Tenth street. A broad beautiful driveway from the Union station up town to Broadway will be secured, so that visitors by rail will be impressed at first sight with the beauty and progress of Paducah; the old red light in the vicinity of Kentucky avenue and Washington street will be redeemed beyond the possibility of retrogression, and another link will be forged in the proposed park system of Paducah. Property values in that part of the city will be increased permanently. This must not be considered selfishly. Whatever helps that section will help the whole city, and the improvement of values will mean the eventual improvement in appearance and sanitation.

How valuable it will be to have such a broad driveway from the station up-town, anyone who has traveled much or little, and formed impressions of cities from cab and car windows, will appreciate. Such a street will be an example for others, and following close upon its improvement, there will come demands for the improvement of other streets and concessions by property owners, such as other cities have experienced.

Paducah has made a noticeable advance in appearance the last two years. The start was the destruction of front yard fences. Sod and flowers and trees are growing in places that knew them not a short time ago. The improvement of the court yard, Tighman circle and Tenth street between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, the Confederate monument and the D. A. R. fountain, are long steps on the way toward the city beautiful.

When the Jefferson boulevard is completed, Fountain avenue extended southward to Goebel avenue, and a magnificent new entrance on Fountain avenue added to Oak Grove cemetery, strangers will begin to observe something distinctively beautiful about Paducah.

River front, plans still in embryo, will add much to the charm of the city. Among the early improvements there to be hoped for, are the redemption of the street along the water front, by the removal of encroaching property.

TOUGH ON McNUTT.
The pot always boils at the bottom first; and only the alert may see what is going on. Politics is no different from other things that boil. Kentucky is a lively cauldron right now and every few minutes something comes to the surface, indicating the agitation going on below.

Yesterday morning the Courier-Journal declared the Democracy of Louisville could "count the Courier-Journal out" if Senator H. S. McNutt were re-nominated. Among other reasons given is that Senator McNutt voted against Beckham for United States senator and thereby "separated himself from Democratic fellowship." That position is not remarkable per se; but it does seem strange that conditions warrant the party paper in warning its constituency against the nomination of a man, who went back on his instructions, indicating that there is a disposition to nominate Senator McNutt in spite of his party disloyalty.

It is remarkable, too, that the Courier-Journal, the mainstay of that element of the party, which violated instructions, and glorified the independence of the Louisville delegation in the general assembly, should turn against Senator McNutt for doing the very thing the Courier-Journal condoned and excused.

On the other hand, Senator Tom Combs, of Lexington, a life-long Beckham man, has named the steering committee of the state central committee, indicating awakening activity in that quarter for the resumption of control in Kentucky.

We take it from these signs, that the Haldemans are clearing the deck for action, and getting rid of all incumbrances and undesirable supercargo. It is tough on McNutt; but when a man allows himself to be used once, he must expect ever after to fare according to his usefulness and availability, and the McNutts of this world can be used but once.

SUICIDES AND SUGGESTION.
A society has been instituted for the purpose of discouraging the publication of murder and suicide stories on the theory of suggestion. The society bases its theory on the fact that after one suicide is committed, there frequently is a series of suicides in exactly the same manner, newspaper clippings often being found among the possessions of the suicides.

We might be facetious and remind those, who think thus, that for three successive days this week the newspapers carried stories of deaths by powder explosions. The opposite of suggestions—warning—does not seem to have applied in the last two explosion cases; but as a matter of fact, the society is right in its theory, only it doesn't stop where its theory does. The suggestion is only as to the method of execution. The suicide already has the intention fixed in his mind, and the newspaper story only induces him to adopt the plan of his most immediate predecessor.

If the theory went further, we would have to conclude that suicides were an invention of the newspaper, the first one reported being, perhaps, an erroneously interpreted accident, and that where there are no newspapers to suggest the idea there are no suicides.

The truth is exactly the contrary. In those oriental countries, where they have no newspapers, as we understand the term, suicides are most common. The "higher thought", the philosophy which says it only believes what man can establish by human proof, is responsible for most suicides. When the man is "up against it", discouraged and helpless, or temporarily despondent, maybe diseased, and realizes that all human aid is unavailing and there is no higher power to cling to, he is likely to think "what's the use?"

This theory is borne out by the fact that the egoistic philosophy, which finds its highest function in the contemplation of self, has been developed in the orient for thousands of years, and suicide is an Asiatic accomplishment.

Following is a list of the district prizes which will be awarded McCracken county candidates:

As a sub-grand prize a four hundred dollar Ward plan will be given the man or woman who secures the largest number of votes, unless, of course, one or more of the grand prizes are won in this district. Then the following prizes will be alternated between the succeeding candidates in the two districts into which the county has been divided; a one hundred and fifty dollar diamond, purchased from Joe Wolf; a hundred dollar buggy, purchased from Powell-Rogers; a seventy-five dollar range purchased from Geo. O. Hart & Sons; a seventy-five dollar scholarship in The Paducah Central Business College; two fifty dollar watches; and two twenty-five dollar articles of furniture purchased from Garner Bros.

Rules of the Contest.

For the purpose of determining who are the most popular persons in West Kentucky, the following newspapers are associated in the conduct of "The Paducah Evening Sun and Tribune Democrat and The Sun. Contest, the territory being divided into districts as indicated:
District No. 1. McCracken County north of Broadway and the Blandville Road.
District No. 2. McCracken County south of Broadway and the Blandville Road.
District No. 3. Ballard county—Ballard Yeoman and The Sun.
District No. 4. Carlisle and Hickman counties—Arlington Courier and The Sun.
District No. 5. Fulton county—Fulton Leader and The Sun.
District No. 6. Graves county—Livingston Echo and The Sun.
District No. 8. Marshall county—Tribune Democrat and The Sun.
District No. 9. Calloway County—Calloway Times and The Sun.
District No. 10. Caldwell county—Caldwell County News and The Sun.

In each of the districts enumerated a separate and distinct list of prizes (as described below in the paragraph on prizes) will be awarded by the Paducah Evening Sun together with the newspaper co-operating in that county in the search for popular people. These are the district prizes. But for the whole territory taken as a unit a number of splendid Grand Prizes have been provided for the people who show that they are the most popular, not only in their district but in all the districts taken together.

WHO ARE ELIGIBLE?

Any white man or woman of good repute residing in any of the counties enumerated above is eligible to enter in this contest.

HOW TO VOTE

There are two ways of securing votes to be cast for the candidates in this contest. By clipping from the issues of The Sun and associated newspapers coupons good for the number of votes printed upon them, and by certificates issued from the offices of any of the newspapers in exchange for subscriptions to The Paducah Evening Sun and to the paper issuing the votes. As the following scale will show the latter method of securing votes is much quicker and more satisfactory.

Scale of Votes.

MAIL SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Paper.	Term.	Price.	Old Sub. Votes.	New Sub. Votes.
The Sun	1 Year	$2.00	3750	7,500
Assoc.	1 Year	1.00	1250	2,500
The Sun	6 Mos.	1.50	1500	3,000
Assoc.	6 Mos.	.50	500	1,000
The Sun	2 Years	6.00	3275	18,750
Assoc.	2 Years	2.00	3125	6,250

Carrier Subscriptions.

In towns where The Sun has a carrier service the following scale of votes will be in effect:

Term.	Price.	Old Sub. Votes.	New Sub. Votes.
1 Year	$ 5.00	5,000	10,000
6 Mos.	2.50	2,000	4,000
2 Years	10.00	12,500	25,000

Prizes and Distribution.

Grand Prizes—First, $1,000 automobile; second, $500 in cash; third, $350 in cash.
District Prizes—First, $400 piano; second, $100 bed room suite; third, $50 gold watch; fourth, $50 business college scholarship; fifth, $25 prize.

The first grand prize is to be awarded to the candidate having the greatest number of votes in the entire contest, irrespective of district. The second grand prize will be awarded to the candidate having the second highest number of votes in the entire contest and the third grand prize to the candidate having the third highest number. The district prizes will be awarded the five contestants having the highest number of votes in their respective districts, after the grand prizes have been awarded. A grand prize winner will not be allowed to win a district prize, and in districts where grand prize winners reside, the contestant having the next highest number of votes will be declared the highest in that district and the winner of the first district prize.

REGULATIONS—No candidate will be allowed to secure votes on subscriptions to newspapers other than the one published in the district in which he lives and the Paducah Evening Sun. For instance, a candidate residing in district 5 may not secure votes on a subscription for the paper conducting the contest in district 8, or vice versa. But candidates may go anywhere in the efforts to secure subscriptions to their home paper and the Paducah Evening Sun. Thus a candidate in district 9 may secure in district 10 subscriptions to the paper published in district 9 and the Paducah Evening Sun.

Except in districts 1, 2 and 6 all subscriptions must be for two papers at once, one for the paper published in the district in which the candidate lives and one for the Paducah Evening Sun. These two subscriptions in one must be for an equal length of time and only for such periods as are listed in the scale of votes above.

Inquisitive Worms.
"I am going for worms," the fisherman said, "but I need no spade. This bottle of soap-suds takes its place." Reaching the hollow, he showered the suds upon the ground, moistening a circle five yards in diameter. Then he sat down on a log and filled his pipe.

"They'll be up in a minute or so," he said.
Sure enough, by twos and threes the small black worms poked their tiny heads out of the soil and looked inquisitively about. The fisherman gathered them into a bait-can.

"It's their curiosity brings them up," he said. "Woodpeckers, knowing this, bring them up by stamping on the soil."

TALKS ON SOCIALISM

FEATURE OF OPENING OF EPISCOPAL CONGRESS.

Many Leading Bishops, Rectors and Laymen Present at Meeting in Boston.

Boston, May 13.—Many of the leading bishops, rectors and laymen of the Protestant Episcopal church were present in Tremont Temple at the first session of the twenty-seventh annual National Episcopal Church Congress. Bishop William Lawrence, of Massachusetts, presided.

"Socialism in Relation to Christianity" was discussed at length by half a dozen speakers. Among the papers read was one by Silas McBee, of New York, editor of the Churchman, who thought the demand for unity was growing throughout Christendom.

The Rev. Elliot White, of Worcester, said the Socialist movement of the world expresses the most important fact of modern social evolution—the advance to political control of all nations by the producers of wealth.

"These are to be the arbiters of the times that are not far off," he declared. "What will be their estimate of a church which refuses to aid, or even opposes their tolls to the ascent to power? Christianity must choose between the producers and those who by force of ownership now exploit them."

"In the face of the iniquitous co-existence today in America of multimillionaires and starving seekers for opportunity to earn bread; of wealthy idlers and child laborers; of monopolized natural resources and public utilities whose owners dwell in palaces, and crowded slums where 80,000 babies die every year from ill directly traceable to poverty—Christians who declare for Socialism, and churches who give it open hearing, should not be condemned until it is shown to be adverse to the practice of Christianity on personal and national life, as well as inadequate to diminish the grievous burdens and minatory peril of our social problems."

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TEAMS MAY PLAY BALL.

Owensboro and Henderson baseball teams composed of players who are members of the Knights of Columbus want the Paducah lodge to organize a team and meet them on home diamonds. The matter was brought before Mr. Fred Flanagan, who was a delegate to the meeting, and he will place it before the Paducah members. The lodge has good material, and no doubt the trip will be made while on the trip the team would play both teams.

GAS FACTORIES

In People Who Do Not Know How to Select Food and Drink Properly.

On the coffee question a lady says: "I used to be so miserably after breakfast that I did not know how to get through the day. Life was a burden to me. When I tried to sleep I was miserable by having horrible dreams followed by hours of wakefulness. Gas would rise on my stomach and I would belch almost continually. Then every few weeks I would have a long siege of sick headaches. I tried a list of medicines and physicians without benefit."

"Finally, I concluded to give up my coffee and tea altogether and use Postum. The first cup was a failure. It was wishy-washy and I offered to give the remainder of the package to anyone who would take it."

"I noticed later on in one of the advertisements that Postum should be boiled at least 15 minutes to make it good. I asked the cook how she made it and she said, 'Just the same as I did tea, being careful not to let it steep too long.'"

"I read the directions and concluded Postum had not had a fair trial, so we made a new lot and boiled it 15 to 20 minutes. That time it came to the table a different beverage and was so delicious that we have been using it ever since."

"My sick headaches left entirely as did my sleepless nights, and I am now a different woman."

"There's a Reason." Read "The Road to Wellville" in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true and full of human interest.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth?

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. $1.00 bottles guaranteed. R. W. Walker Co., Special Agents.

Mistaken for a Turkey.

Hickman, Ky., May 13.—News was received here this morning of the horrible death of Will DeLeon at Three States, yesterday afternoon, ten miles below Hickman. Will DeLeon and Pete Wheeler were out turkey hunting. DeLeon had a turkey caller, and was imitating the turkey call, and Wheeler hearing the call, and supposing it was a wild turkey, was answering. DeLeon hearing the turkey getting nearer, secreted himself behind a tree, waiting to get a chance to shoot. As Wheeler got close, still giving the turkey call, DeLeon moved a little, setting the clump of bushes in motion, and Wheeler thinking the turkey was in the bushes fired. The whole load entered DeLeon's face, severing the tongue, and filling his face full of shot. DeLeon lived three minutes. He was a young man of twenty-three.

Japan's Good Roads.

Japan is peculiarly well off in respect of good highways. The Tokaido, which runs from Kioto to Tokio is over 300 miles in length, and, as the writer can testify, is admirably constructed. There is also the Nakasendo, which is even longer, and passes through some of the finest scenery in the world. The reason of Japan's excellence in the matter of roads is that in the old days—not so very long ago—the daimios, or territorial nobles, had to journey to Tokio once a year in order to pay their respects to the sovereign. They traveled by road, with great retinues, and if the highways were not in perfect condition feudal justice was meted out to the delinquents.—London Chronicle.

Will Try Abdul.

Constantinople, May 13.—Convicted that the trial and conviction of Abdul Hamid on formal charges is the only way his deposition can be justified in the eyes of Mohammedans, Young Turks today are busy formulating plans for his trial. According to the best information, charges will be practically the same as those brought against him informally when he was deposed. It is not believed death sentence will be imposed upon Abdul, as the Young Turks are unwilling to be known as regicides.

Twenty Years of Fraud.

Eighteen years ago Hepburn was a member of a committee appointed to investigate the customs bureau of New York and he discovered the most flagrant evidences of importers and men in the employ of the government accepting bribes for making fraudulent entries.

LEADING APOSTLE OF CIVIC REFORM

Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane of Michigan.

Makes Tour of Lexington Wednesday Afternoon in Company with the Mayor and Others.

TIME TAKEN UP WITH LECTURES

The Lexington Leader says: Recognized throughout the United States as a leading exponent of "civic righteousness" and an eminent authority on sociological reforms, which she has successfully inaugurated in many cities, Rev. Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane, of Kalamazoo, Mich., former pastor of the People's church of that city, but now engaged in the broader work of civic philanthropy, is in Lexington and will be here until Saturday studying local conditions and lecturing on the great work in which she is engaged.

Mrs. Crane, who comes to Kentucky for a thirty days' observation and lecture tour, under the united auspices of the state board of health, the state pure food convention and the Kentucky Federation of Women's clubs, arrived Wednesday morning from Cincinnati, where she spoke to large mass meetings and was met at the Union station by Mrs. C. W. Moore, president of the Woman's club of this city, whose guest she will be at 472 West Third street, while here.

Mrs. Crane holds commissions as state inspector under the pure food act and sanitary inspector under the state board of health and her visit is therefore official. It is her purpose to make a general study of social, sanitary and food conditions while in the state, recommend such reforms as she thinks will improve these conditions and endeavor to interest and unite the various organizations in each community working for the social uplift in a co-operative effort to inaugurate needed reforms.

Mrs. Crane is a woman of magnetic personality, an attractive, forceful speaker and enthusiastically devoted to the movement in which she has enlisted. She is not only a theorist, understanding the importance of the great problems of civic and social betterment, but she is a practical reformer, as the results of her efforts in many cities prove. In other words she "starts something" in the cities and towns she visits, and better sanitation, better food, better homes, better living conditions for the masses follow in the wake of her gospel of civic righteousness.

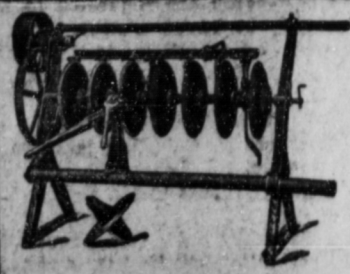

Mrs. Crane, accompanied by Mrs. Moore, called on Mayor Skain Wednesday morning and had a conference with his honor at which a tour of inspection of the city was arranged and dates for several public lectures announced. At this conference it was decided to make a tour of the city at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to study general local conditions and give Mrs. Crane an idea of the good and bad points in Lexington. Automobiles will be provided for the trip, and Mrs. Crane will be accompanied by Mayor Skain, Dr. J. C. Carriek, president of the board of health; Dr. George P. Sprague, president of the civic league; Mrs. Warner S. Kinkaid, chairman of the Social Science Department of the Woman's club; Mrs. M. A. Scoville, chairman of the pure food department of the Woman's club, and Prof. Benjamin Scherffus, of the State University Experiment Station, and perhaps others. It is Mrs. Crane's desire to specially inspect the system of street cleaning, garbage collection and disposal, the water supply and other conditions.

The Visitation. Besides the water works, the crematory and other places, it is probable that the slums will also be visited by the party for the purpose of observing living conditions in those quarters. After returning from the inspection tour, Mrs. Crane will devote the remainder of the evening to RICH RED BLOOD Means Rosy Cheeks, Clear Complexion, Bright Eyes and Plenty of Energy.

What does rich, red blood mean? It means brains, vitality, ambition, hopefulness, persistency, and everything worth living for.

But you can't have rich, red blood, if your digestion is imperfect; and if your digestion is certainly imperfect if you have sour stomach, bad taste in mouth, lump of lead after eating, belching of gas and nervous unrest. So far reaching is the effect of indigestion, that many times the eyesight is affected.

If you have indigestion or any symptom of stomach distress or agony Gilbert's drug store will sell you a mighty remedy for 50 cents, and guarantee it to cure or money back.

The remedy is called Mi-o-na. Its powerful, reconstructive action on the stomach is little short of marvelous. It tones up, strengthens and puts new life and energy into the worn out stomach in a few days. It cures by removing the cause. If you are a sufferer, try a large 50 cent box. It's a small price to pay for banishing indigestion.

Mi-o-na is sold by leading druggists in every town in America, and by Gilbert's drug store in Paducah, for 50 cents a box.

conferences with citizens relative to plans and suggestion of improvement.

Mrs. Crane said to the Leader representative, who met her at the mayor's office and had quite a pleasant talk with her about her work, that she made it a practice on these tours to "cut out" social functions.

"As much as I enjoy them, I have found that I cannot attend and have time for observation, lecturing and work."

The following program has been arranged to cover Mrs. Crane's stay in Lexington, and includes three public lectures.

Thursday, up to 4 o'clock, investigation of sanitary condition of city.

Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, lecture at Woman's club, open to the public, men especially invited.

Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, address to the faculty and students at State University.

Friday evening at 8 o'clock, mass meeting at the Lexington opera house, at which Mayor Skain will preside and which will be the most important address of Mrs. Crane while here.

At this mass meeting Mrs. Crane will exhibit stereopticon views of conditions in some of the large cities which she has recently visited, and also views of conditions in Lexington, made from the result of her personal observations.

Mrs. Crane talked enthusiastically and interestingly to a Leader representative Wednesday morning of her work, and hopes for great good from her visit to Kentucky.

"I want the men folks to attend my lectures," said Mrs. Crane, "for they are the people who are in charge of the sanitary, food and water supplies of the community, and who handle the public funds necessary to remedying bad conditions."

Asked what plan she pursued in getting the public to co-operate with her, Mrs. Crane said:

"I first show the good and bad points and intelligent citizens are quick to choose the good and seek to provide a remedy for the bad. When this is done I urge co-operation of all the forces engaged in the fight for civic improvement and a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether, works wonders."

Mrs. Crane then told of how at Erie, Pa., the chamber of commerce took the initiative in a great civic federation in which all the organizations, churches and clubs united and a clean, healthy, beautiful city was the result. In Chicago she concentrated her efforts on the street cleaning system, twenty-three different organizations responding to her call, and marvelous results followed.

Real Civic Reform. Mrs. Crane has given the usual empty phrase, "Civic Reform," a real vital meaning and has become noted for her great work in church, civic and philanthropic fields of activity, proving herself a practical reformer along broad humanitarian lines, and satisfactorily solving some of the more perplexing problems of civic, social and home life.

Mrs. Crane's itinerary in Kentucky which will occupy a month, will conclude with the annual convention of the State Federation of Women's clubs at Owensboro, where she will lecture three times, giving a summary of her work in the state. While in western Kentucky Mrs. Crane, whose mother was a Kentuckian—a fact of which the noted lecturer is quite proud—will visit an aunt at Hawesville.

From here Mrs. Crane goes to Richmond for a three days' study of conditions there; thence to Berea college upon invitation to talk to the faculty and students of that institution. Frankfort will be next visited and here a great mass meeting, at which Governor Wilson will preside, has been arranged. She will next go to Harrodsburg, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Letcher Riker, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs. Danville and Shelbyville are on her itinerary, and study dairy conditions, as much of Louisville milk supply comes from Shelby county. She will next visit Louisville spending six days there, lecturing and preaching a sermon in one of the leading churches. Her next stop will be at Bowling Green, where she will be the guest of Dr. J. N. McCormick, secretary of the state board of health. Her tour of western Kentucky will include stops at Owensboro, Henderson and Paducah.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR LATE BISHOP CHARLES GALLOWAY.

Broadway Methodist Congregation Remembers Great Leader, Who Was Well Known Here.

The prayer service at the Broadway Methodist church last night was a memorial service for Bishop Charles B. Galloway, who died at his home in Jackson, Miss., yesterday morning. It was a beautiful service and a large congregation was present. Mr. C. B. Hatfield read a sketch of Bishop Galloway's life and work, and the music was in keeping with the spirit of the occasion. The Rev. G. T. Sullivan conducted the service.

Bishop Galloway was greatly beloved by the congregation of the Broadway Methodist people, many of whom knew him as a personal friend as well as honored bishop. He held the first service in the new Broadway auditorium and preached a masterly sermon. His first visit to Paducah was the occasion of a district conference at the Broadway Methodist church several years before the present church was built. The impressions of these two visits are vivid yet.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Removing the symptoms is not all that is necessary to cure Contagious Blood Poison. The virulent germs which produce these outward manifestations must be completely driven from the blood before a real cure can be effected. The least taint left in the circulation will, sooner or later, cause a fresh outbreak of the trouble, with all the hideous symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper colored spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc.

Contagious Blood Poison is the most treacherous of all diseases.

It has its victims in its power almost before they realize its presence, because its first symptom is usually a little sore or pimple so insignificant that it does not excite suspicion. But the insidious poison is at work on the blood and in a short while the patient finds he is more or less affected from head to foot.

Contagious Blood Poison is too dangerous to trifle with. No time should be lost in ridding the blood of this destructive poison, and in no disease is it more important to have the proper remedy. Medicines which merely check the symptoms for a time and leave the real cause smoldering in the system have brought misery and disappointment to thousands. Faithfully the sufferers took such treatment, usually of mineral nature, and when all symptoms had disappeared and the treatment was left off, found the virus had only been shut up in the system awaiting a favorable opportunity to return, with every symptom intensified.

S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison and cures it permanently. It goes down into the blood and removes every particle of the poison, makes the circulation pure and healthy, and does not leave the slightest trace of the disease for future outbreaks. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, all of which are healing and cleansing in their nature. It does not contain a particle of mineral in any form to injure the delicate parts of the system. S. S. S. will also drive out any lingering remains of mineral poison that may be in the blood from the former treatment. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S. S. S. will cure you, because it will purify your blood. Home treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.

have now about 75,000 of our young people in these organizations already. Think of what it will mean to help these and thousands of others who are coming soon to discover their talents and to learn how to use them. Call to mind the 20,000 and more who are gathering in twenty summer assemblies, and think of the 75,000 or more who are studying missions. Do we really know, can we know, what this means? What tremendous strength, what added power this will give to our churches! What new beauty and sacredness will it give to the doctrines and practices of God's word and His people!

The address of Dr. Hamilton was heard by several hundred workers in the cause of the union, and his remarks were freely punctuated by applause. Dr. Hamilton was in charge of the opening exercises, which included a number of songs and prayer by different members of the union present. The latter included George T. Webb, general secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, who lives in Philadelphia, and the Rev. Dr. H. N. Virgin, of Nashville. A vocal duet, "He Knows," was rendered by the Rev. H. W. Barreter and Mrs. Barreter, of Kansas City, Mo.

Then followed an address by the Rev. Caleb A. Ridley, of Beaumont, Tex., his subject being, "Visions." Dr. Ridley said that the power to see into the future, to indulge in day dreams or visions, had enabled noted Americans to encompass wonderful results in the way of inventions, mentioning the steam engine, the wireless telegraph, etc., and he said, this power to see into the future extends to the spiritual realm. The address of Dr. Ridley was classical and of much interest.

The Rev. John E. Briggs, of Atlanta, Ga., emphasized the work which it is possible for the union to do by telling his hearers what had been accomplished by the B. Y. P. U. "for the Capitol Avenue church." His address was along practical lines and appealed strongly to those in the audience.

The rest of the afternoon service was devoted to hearing reports of the various committees which, as indicated in the address of Dr. Hamilton, were of such a character as to arouse the greatest enthusiasm.

A service will be held tonight at the Armory, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Meeting of Seminary Trustees.
A meeting of the board of trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary was held in the chapel, Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the seminary, reported that about $100,000 had been raised the past year toward completing the $600,000 endowment of the seminary. He suggested that the trustees ask the Southern Baptist convention, at this session, for a collection, and says that the completion of the movement is of the utmost importance.

Dr. Mullins, in his report said in part: "Two of three special features I wish to note. The Concord Association of Kentucky, which has in it no large town, contributed $9,000. Five thousand dollars of this comes from one man, but the country churches in this association did nobly. Much was due to the leadership of the Rev. T. J. Watts, pastor of the church at New Liberty."

"The Copiah County association in Mississippi has conducted a unique campaign. They have set out to raise $1,000 in one-dollar pledges, and they have a good portion of this sum raised."

"Two or three special features. I wish to note 'The amounts in the various states for jubilee endowment are as follows: Mississippi, $48,365.31; Alabama, $10,708.50; Kentucky, $11,109.35; Missouri, $250; Louisiana, $1,307; Tennessee, $14,423.50; Georgia, $6,193.44; total, $92,357.31."

"The above does not include the money raised since the books closed for the fiscal year on April 10. A considerable sum has been raised since that time."

"It will be recalled that W. J. Slayden, of North Carolina, proposed that we find nineteen other individuals who would give $5,000 each and that he himself would give $5,000, thus making $100,000. Much of my time during the last year has been devoted to finding the remaining nineteen, and a good portion of these have been found."

"It is of the utmost importance that we push to a successful conclusion this $100,000 campaign as well as the other departments of this effort."

Necia had no idea whether she went. Her only thought was to flee from her kin, who could not understand; to hide under cover in some solitary place; to let the darkness swallow her up, so that she might give way to her grief and be just a poor weak woman. On she stumbled blindly through the murk like some fair creature of light cast out and banished.

She had not succeeded in thoroughly isolating herself, however, for a man who was steering his course by the sense of feel and the wind's direction heard her and paused. His steps were muffled in the soft footing, so that she had no warning of his presence until he was near enough to distinguish her dimly where she leaned

He took down a bottle and some glasses, against the log wall of a half completed cabin.

"To his question, 'What's the trouble here?' she made no answer, but moved away, whereupon he detained her. 'There's something wrong. Who are you anyhow?'

"It's only Necia, Mr. Stark," said the girl, at which he advanced and took her by the arm. "What ails you, child? What in the world are you doing here? Come! It's only a step to my cabin. You must come in and rest awhile, and you'll soon be all right. Why, you'll break your neck in this darkness."

She hung back, but he compelled her to go with him in spite of her unwillingness.

"Now, now," he admonished, with unusual kindness for him; "you know you're my little friend, and I can't let you go on this way. It's scandalous. You won't stand for it. I like you too much."

He led her inside his cabin and closed the door in the face of the night wind before he struck a light.

"I can't stand to see you cry," he repeated as he adjusted the wick. "Now, as soon as"—He stopped in astonishment, for he had turned to behold instead of the little half breed girl this slender, sorrowful stranger in her amazingly wonderful raiment.

"By"—He checked himself insensibly and stood motionless for a long time.

"I—I—hope you'll excuse me for acting this way," she smiled at him piteously; then, observing his strange features: "Why, what is the matter, Mr. Stark? Are you angry?"

His hawklike face was strained and colorless, his black eyes fierce and eager, his body bent as if to pounce upon a victim. In truth, he was now the predatory animal.

"No," he replied as if her question carried no meaning; then, coming to himself. "No, no; of course not. But you gave me a start. You reminded me of some one. How do you come to be dressed like that? I never knew you had such clothes."

"Poleon brought them from Dawson. They are the first I ever had."

He shook his head in a slow, puzzled fashion.

"You look just like a white girl—I mean—I don't know what I mean." This time he roused himself fully, the effort being more like a shudder.

"So I have always thought," she said, and her eyes filled again.

He shoved forward a big chair with a wolfskin slung over it, into which she sank dejectedly, while he stepped to the shelves beside the Yukon stove and took down a bottle and some glasses.

"I'm not fixed up very well yet," he apologized. "I've been too busy at the saloon to waste time on living quarters. But it's comfortable enough for an old roadster like me."

He was talking to give her leeway and when he had concocted a weak toddy insisted that she must drink it, which she did listlessly, while he rambled on:

"I've noticed a few things in my life, Miss Necia, and one of them is that it often does a heap of good to let out and talk things over—not that a fellow gains any real advantage from disseminating his troubles, but it serves to sort of ease his mind. Folks don't often come to me for advice or sympathy. I don't have it to give. But maybe it will help you to tell me what caused this night marauding expedition of yours." Seeing that she hesitated, he went on: "I suppose there's a lot of reasons why you shouldn't confide in me. I don't like that old man of yours nor any of your friends, but maybe that's why I'm interested. If any of them has upset you I'll take particular pleasure in helping you get even."

"I don't want to get even, and there is nothing to tell," said Necia, "except a girl's troubles, and I can't talk about them." She smiled a painful, crooked smile at him.

"Your old man has been rough to you?"

"No, no! Nothing of that sort."

"Then it's that soldier?" he quizzed shrewdly. "I knew you cared a heap for him. Don't he love you?"

"Yes. That's the trouble, and he wants to marry me. He swears he will in spite of everything."

"See here. I don't quite follow. I thought you liked him. He's the kind most women go daffy over."

"Like him?" The girl trembled with emotion. "Like him! Why—why, I would do anything to make him happy."

"I guess I must be kind of dull," Stark said perplexedly.

"Don't you see? I've got to give him up. I'm a squaw."

"Squaw h—l! With those shoulders!"

Stark checked himself, for he found he was rejoicing in his enemy's defeat and was in danger of betraying himself to the girl. In every encounter the young man had bested him, and these petty defeats had crystallized his antipathy to Burrell into a hatred so strong that he had begun to lie awake nights planning a systematic quarrel.

He had brooded over his quarrel with Gale and the lieutenant ever since their first clash, for in this place they furnished the only objects upon which his mania could work, and it was a mania, the derangement of a diseased, distorted mind.

My hair was as white as snow when I commenced using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Restorer. One bottle restored my hair to its natural dark brown color. As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.

CONCRETE WILL BE THE MATERIAL

Out of Which County High School Will be Built.

Board Discusses Repairs and Enlargement of Several Old Buildings.

COUNTY COMMENCEMENT PLANS

Repairs will be made to several of the county schools while new schools will be built where it is necessary. This was decided yesterday afternoon by the county school board after it convened for the afternoon session. A new school house will be erected at Pleasant Ridge for the accommodation of the school children in that sub-district. The Hendron school was reported in bad shape, and the board empowered Trustee W. R. Davis to secure a carpenter to examine the building and see what repairs will be necessary. The building has a secure foundation, but the roof is reported weak, and braces will be necessary to support it properly. It was reported to the board that when the wind blew that the roof creaked, in addition to being dangerous, the roof leaked.

The Arcadia school will be enlarged by an addition of 30 feet, and will be made one of the largest schools in the county. The addition will be built to the present building, and will have a tower and bell, while a hall will be between the two rooms of the school. An addition 12 feet in length will be erected at the Reidland school in order that the crowded condition of the school may be eliminated. At the Shady Grove school an "L" ten feet in length will be erected, while at the county school at Lone Oak an additional ten feet in length will be constructed. The repairs will cost several hundred dollars but it is necessary to relieve the congestion.

Over the location of the Hickory Grove school the board has had much trouble, and it was not settled yesterday. The school is located in subdivision No. 6 of district No. 2, and it has been in a controversy for some time. The school is not located in the center of the sub-district and some residents are pulling for it to be moved, while others are in favor of the school remaining at its present location, asserting that it is nearer a majority of the people, and that it is more accessible during bad weather. Petitions, pro and con, were before the board, and the members deferred action, as they desire to go slow in the matter. Trustee Gholson, with Superintendent Billington, were appointed to visit the sub-district, view the sites and report at the next meeting the advisability of moving the school.

The committee on finances reported in the afternoon that arrangements had been made with the Globe Bank and Trust company to borrow $5,000

June 1, and that $3,000 would be borrowed in August. Both loans are for six months, and six per cent interest will be paid.

The board decided to use marble-crete, which is concrete with a white enamel, in the erection of the county High school at Heath. The board adopted the foundation of the school, which will be 76x48 feet. Superintendent Billington will draw up the specifications and plans for the new school, and will report to the next meeting. The board decided to meet June 5, when the specifications will be considered, and bids for repairs and work on the schools will be opened.

S. J. Billington, county school superintendent, reported that the county school commencement would be held May 25, and he desired all the members present. Last year there were 27 graduates, while this year it is estimated the lowest number that will pass the examination will be 50. A program will be held at Lone Oak commencement night, and May 29 the Alumni association of the county schools will give a river excursion for the graduates.

Superintendent Billington was granted power to rearrange some of the colored districts so that the colored pupils could be given the best educational facilities.

The minor repairs that have been granted for each of the schools was left with the trustee of the sub-district. The chairman of each district will notify his trustees to have the work done in time for the next school session.

No action was taken by the board on the purchase of supplies for the next session. Each school will send in an itemized statement of the new supplies needed, and probably at the next meeting the board will place the contract for the furnishing of the supplies.

—Pro Bono Publico—The Paducah Traction company will run the Rowlandtown cars on a 15 minute schedule during Brunson's cut rate plant sale.

TEN DAYS IN JAIL

WITH FINES OF $500 EACH FOR NIGHT RIDERS.

Defendants Secure Banjo and Make Merry With Music and Dancing in Cells.

Waverly, Tenn., May 12.—A verdict of guilty was returned in the case of the fourteen men charged with being members of the night riders' organization and whipping Esquire J. M. Reece on October 15 last. The punishment was fixed at ten days in jail and a fine of $500 each. They were remanded to jail under a strong military guard, to reappear in court tomorrow, when a motion for a new trial will be made.

After the verdict was announced the defendants shook hands with each other and they secured a banjo and music and dancing were heard in their cells. The names of the men convicted are Wyatt Cowart, Charles Pite, Lee Warren, Walter Warren, Jim Deviney, Charles Hopper, Walter Gordon, George Hodge, Harry Marshall, Jim Murrell, John Moran, Wylie Sanders, Sam Dickerson and Frank Estes. The indictment on which they were tried contained four counts, going masked through towns and villages with unlawful purposes in view, going in disguise upon the premises of another with intention to do him bodily harm, assault with a deadly weapon while wearing a disguise and assault and battery while masked. Judge Cook's charge embraced the Ku Klux law, conviction carrying capital punishment or life imprisonment, at the discretion of the jury and judge; the whitescap law, carrying confinement in the penitentiary for certain periods, and the misdemeanor statutes, with jail imprisonment and fine.

STOMACH TROUBLE CURED

Robt. A. Hays & Co.—I had a stomach trouble and constipation for four years and could not find anything that would relieve me. I could not eat anything except oatmeal and rice, but what would hurt me, so I tried Hays' Specific and had not used it more than two weeks till I could eat anything I wanted without pain. I used one bottle and have never been bothered with my stomach since and it was two years ago. I believe it to be a good family medicine.

NEW HEADLIGHTS WILL BE USED BY FAST ENGINES.

Locomotives used in making the fast passenger runs between Paducah and Louisville will be equipped with acetylene gas headlights instead of the oil headlights, which are in use over the entire system of the Illinois Central. Other railroads have installed generators and used electricity for illuminating headlights, but the Illinois Central has never adopted the light. Mr. H. G. Doran, of Chicago, is in the city, and will install the acetylene lights on five of the engines. Storage tanks will be placed on the locomotives to furnish sufficient gas for about a month and then they will be recharged.
